WEST VIRGINIANS
ON MARIETTA TEAM

Saturday's Game to Be a Battle Between Mountain State Lads.

MORGANTOWN, Sept. 23.—Over and above the fact that Marietta College has this year one of the best teams in a decade and has been at work in a country training camp for over a month with the avowed purpose of trying to down the Mountaineers when the teams meet here on Saturday, there will be the fact that no less than four regulars and two substitutes on the Marietta team are Mountain State products going to college in the city on the edge of the Buckeye state. These six are Braden Aleman and Howard Eaton, of Parkersburg and Sistersville, respectively, both of whom play tackle positions; Ransome, quarterback, from Moundsville; Robinson, halfback from Moundsville; Wolfe, a sub-linebacker from Parkersburg, and Braden, a sub-halfback from Parkersburg also. Aleman and Wolfe are both former university students, Aleman being a regular tackle on the S. A. T. C. team here last fall and Wolfe being a substitute on the same eleven. Ransome and Robinson are two of the best and fastest football men ever turned out in the northern panhandle. Both formerly played on the Moundsville high eleven. Eaton is one of the stars of the Marietta aggregation. He played his high school football at Sistersville and Coach McIntire at that time was coaching at New Martinsville, the rival town. McIntire has a wholesome regard for Eaton and when informed that the star was in the Marietta lineup immediately began to make plans to "take care" of him and at the same time took more serious consideration of the Marietta eleven as an antagonist.

Reserved Seats on Sale.
All seats for all Varsity games at home this fall will be reserved. All of the fifteen hundred seats erected on the east side of the field will be held for the student body and the 1,400 on the west side will be placed on public sale at Reiner & Core's Tuesday morning at eight o'clock.

The largest crowds that have ever witnessed football games here are anticipated this year. Public interest was never so great and that the sale of tickets Tuesday will draw a big throng at the very start is assured. There will be but one price of admission to the game Saturday and that will be one dollar. The choicest reserved seat in the very center of the field will be sold for one dollar and if independent spectators delay their purchases till all seats are sold and nothing but standing room is left, the price for this will still be the same, 1. e., $1.00. It behooves all, therefore, who expect to witness the clash to get their tickets as early in the week as is possible. There will be no parking space available, of course, and every ticket for which there is a seat at the field will be placed at Reiner & Core's at the start of the sale.

The reserved seats which are to be sold to the public have been thoroughly overhauled this summer, painted, the regulation blue of the University and lettered and numbered in Old Gold. The improvements to the athletic field make the accommodations for spectators much more ample than in the past.

SEATTLE TIMES IS
FIVE CENTS A COPY

Increase in Cost of Production
Great Problem for All Newspapers.

SEATTLE Wash., Sept. 23.—On the ground that it will have to pay $500,000 more for its newspaper in 1920 than in 1919, the Seattle Times has increased its subscription price from three to five cents daily, and from seven to ten cents Sunday, and has also increased its advertising rates.

In a public statement, the Times explains that its Sunday paper weighs a pound and a half, with newspaper at five cents a pound, costs it seven and a half cents for paper stock alone, although the Sunday issues are sold to vendors at four cents. Its daily papers weigh a half pound each, so the publishers merely break even at the advanced subscription price by selling the dailies to vendors at two and a half cents.

"The cost of production has advanced the price of white paper more than 100 per cent," the Times declares. "We can either cease publication and wind up our affairs; call upon advertisers to pay, through advanced rates, this additional cost; can divide this additional cost between its readers, its advertisers and itself; can reduce the cost of publication by printing less news and fewer and less expensive features, or make some combination of these three preceding plans. The Times has selected the last plan."

Newspapers all over the country are confronted by the cold fact that the cost of production has greatly increased and must increase revenue, diminish expenditures or suspend publication, the Times concluded.

MATERIALS

Our Second Largest Expense

NEXT TO THE MONEY paid employees, the cost of materials is the most important factor of expense in operating any telephone system. This holds good everywhere, and it is quite true of our company.

PUBLIC REGULATION FIXES the price we may charge for our service, but it does not keep the price of materials down. We must pay current market prices for the materials we require to maintain our plant and equipment. Since 1914 the average price of all

Materials Required to Furnish Telephone
Service Has Increased Over 75 Per Cent

BUT IN SPITE OF the burdens of rising wages and increased cost of materials, we have kept on trying to maintain our equipment at Bell System standards and to furnish a satisfactory grade of service.

WE CANNOT REASONABLY be expected to continue supplying service at a loss, and we do not believe the public wants us to. It is obviously unfair to our employees, our investors—and our patrons.

SO THAT WE MAY fulfill this triple obligation—to Employees, Investors and Patrons—we are now asking for sufficient revenue to pay a fair wage, to earn a reasonable return on the investment and to render good service.
